Chapter 4 of Title III of the General Implementing Provisions

In accordance with Article 30 of the Joint Rules advances may be granted to members to enable them to meet major items of expenditure. Direct billing is the primary form of assistance, although advances may be granted under exceptional circumstances.

Persons who are only eligible for JSIS top-up cover will not be granted direct billing unless it can be established, by means of the necessary documentation, that the JSIS is to take the place of the primary scheme in accordance with the provisions of this Title on top-up cover.

Advances

On the basis of a reasoned request from a member with primary cover, an advance on reimbursement may be granted in the form of a transfer to the member's bank account if his or her pension or basic salary is equal to or less than the basic salary of an official in grade AST2/1 and if the monthly medical costs likely to be incurred by the member total more than 20% of such pension or basic salary.

The advance is automatically recovered if the member does not submit a claim for reimbursement of the medical expenses within three months of receiving the advance, unless the treatment is for a longer period of time and it is not possible to obtain an interim invoice before the end of the treatment.

Extract from Article 30(2) of the Joint Rules

Advances on medical expenses shall be recovered, either from any amount owed to the member under this Scheme or from the remuneration or pension or from any amount owed to the member by the institution or from the survivor's pension following the member's death.
