PRESIDENT'S WORK PROGRAMME 2024-2027 HIGHLIGHTS

- Demanding that administrations provide services that are genuinely 'at the service of their affiliates', taking into account the population of pensioners, both in terms of its specific characteristics and its quantitative size (over 30,000 people).

In addition to the digital divide, which is widening due to the constant changes in IT communication tools, isolating a growing number of pensioners, this also requires listening and empathy on the part of the Administration.

- Take an active part in the work of the CGAM.
- Make effective progress towards recognition of JSIS by national health systems.
- Closely monitor the development of the method.
- Pursue cooperation between the sections and the International and between sections, in particular by actively pursuing meetings between treasurers and between those in charge of communication, social volunteers, insurance, etc. in the national sections.
- To ensure that the Association's resources match its expenditure, by exploring the possibility of increasing the subsidies paid.
- Finalising the overhaul of the Statutes.
- Communicate more effectively with our members, either directly or via the sections.

- Support the operation of the two newly-created sections and to help create and start up sections in countries that do not yet have one and that feel the need for one.
- Establish a sustainable and satisfactory system for our Yearly Congress.
- Contribute to studies, consultations and awareness-raising and dissemination as part of initiatives of European interest.
- Continue to raise the visibility of AIACE International with Institutions outside the Commission and the Agencies.
